

Media Advisory

May 26, 2005

Students celebrate First Nations culture with annual Joe Duquette Powwow

Dancers and drummers from Joe Duquette High School (919 Broadway Ave), Saskatoon and the surrounding area will be participating in the school's annual powwow on Friday, May 27, 2005 with a Grand Entry starting the dancing off at 10 a.m.

A hand drum competition as well as displays by artisans and crafters will also be part of the event this year.

Joe Duquette High School is one of two associate schools in the Catholic school division. It is located in the Nutana area and has an enrolment of about 275 students with 23 full-time and part-time teachers, service and support staff.

-30-

For more information, please contact:

Mona Etcheverry
Communications Consultant
Saskatoon Catholic Schools
Telephone: 659-7077